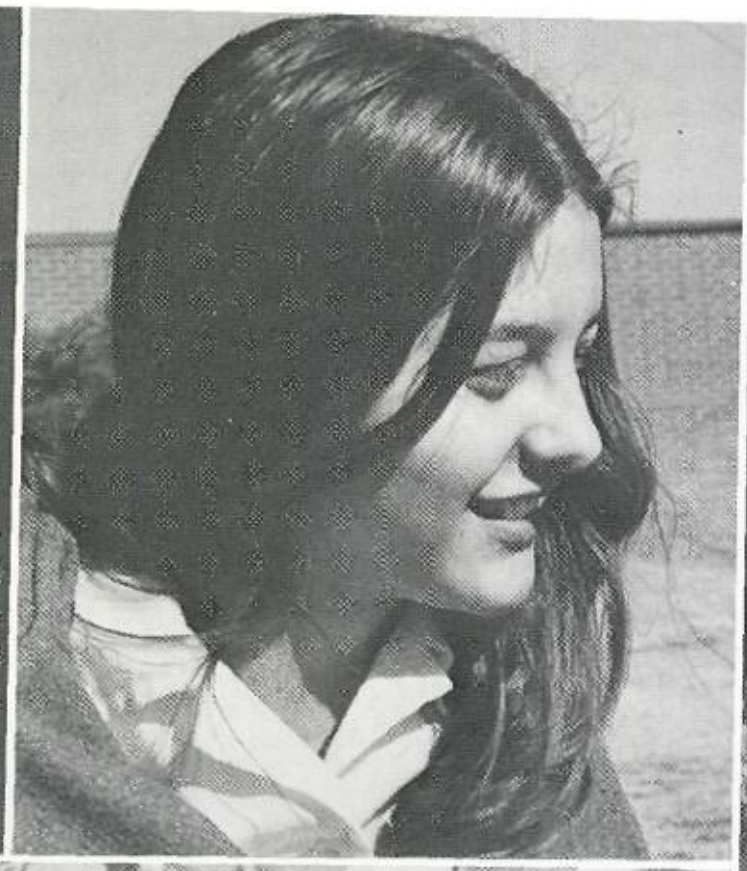
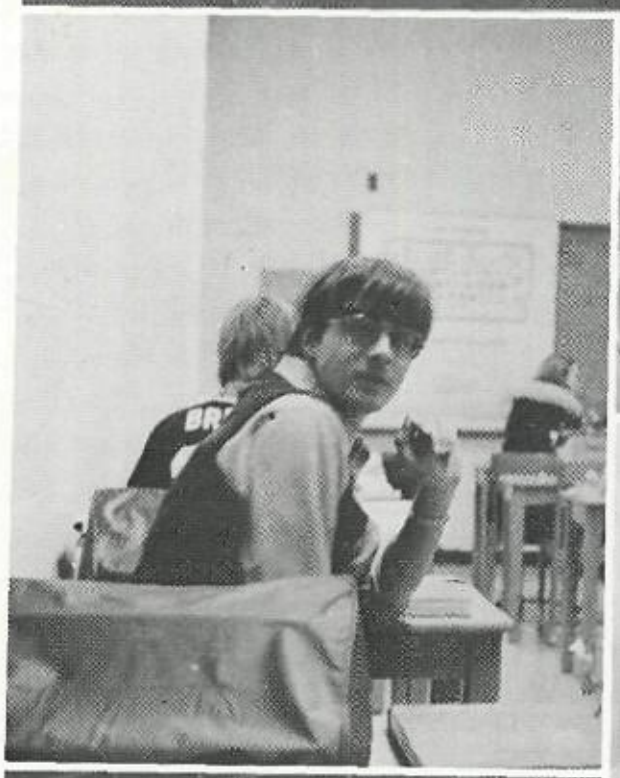
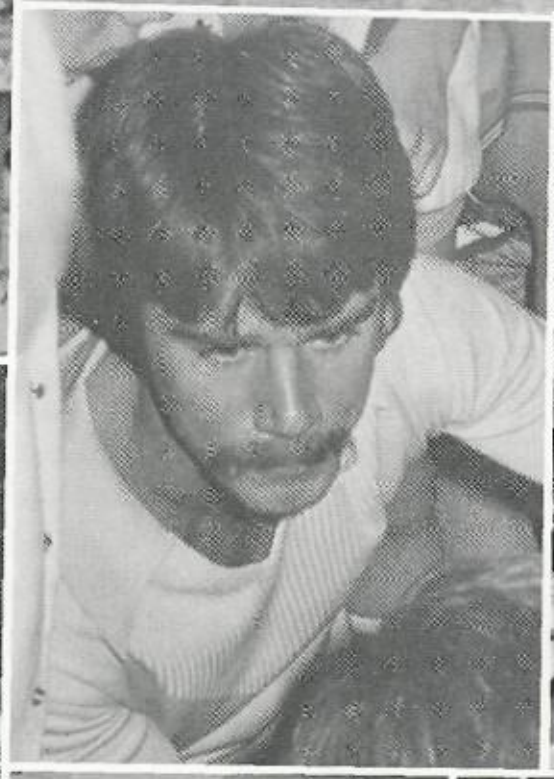
CORDELL SCHOOLS, CORDELL OKLAHOMA







Another year has come and passed. Now that the year is over, we can look back and laugh at all the funny and sometimes unintentional stunts done by students at Cordell High.

All, whether a performer or fan, had a part in making the past year a good one. Each had his individual part. Together the enthusiasm and interest of the students and faculty made the year full of activities. Some of these were ball games, F. H. A. and F. F. A. initiations, the homecoming parade, float making, speech and band contests, and graduation. Along with these we have the regulars, such as term papers, tests, and homework.

Each day brings something new. The spirit keeps us striving for more.

We see them simply as children, without realizing that they will soon be walking the halls of our high schools and colleges.

At the present they are busy being snowmen, dancers and clowns—working, coloring, and being themselves.

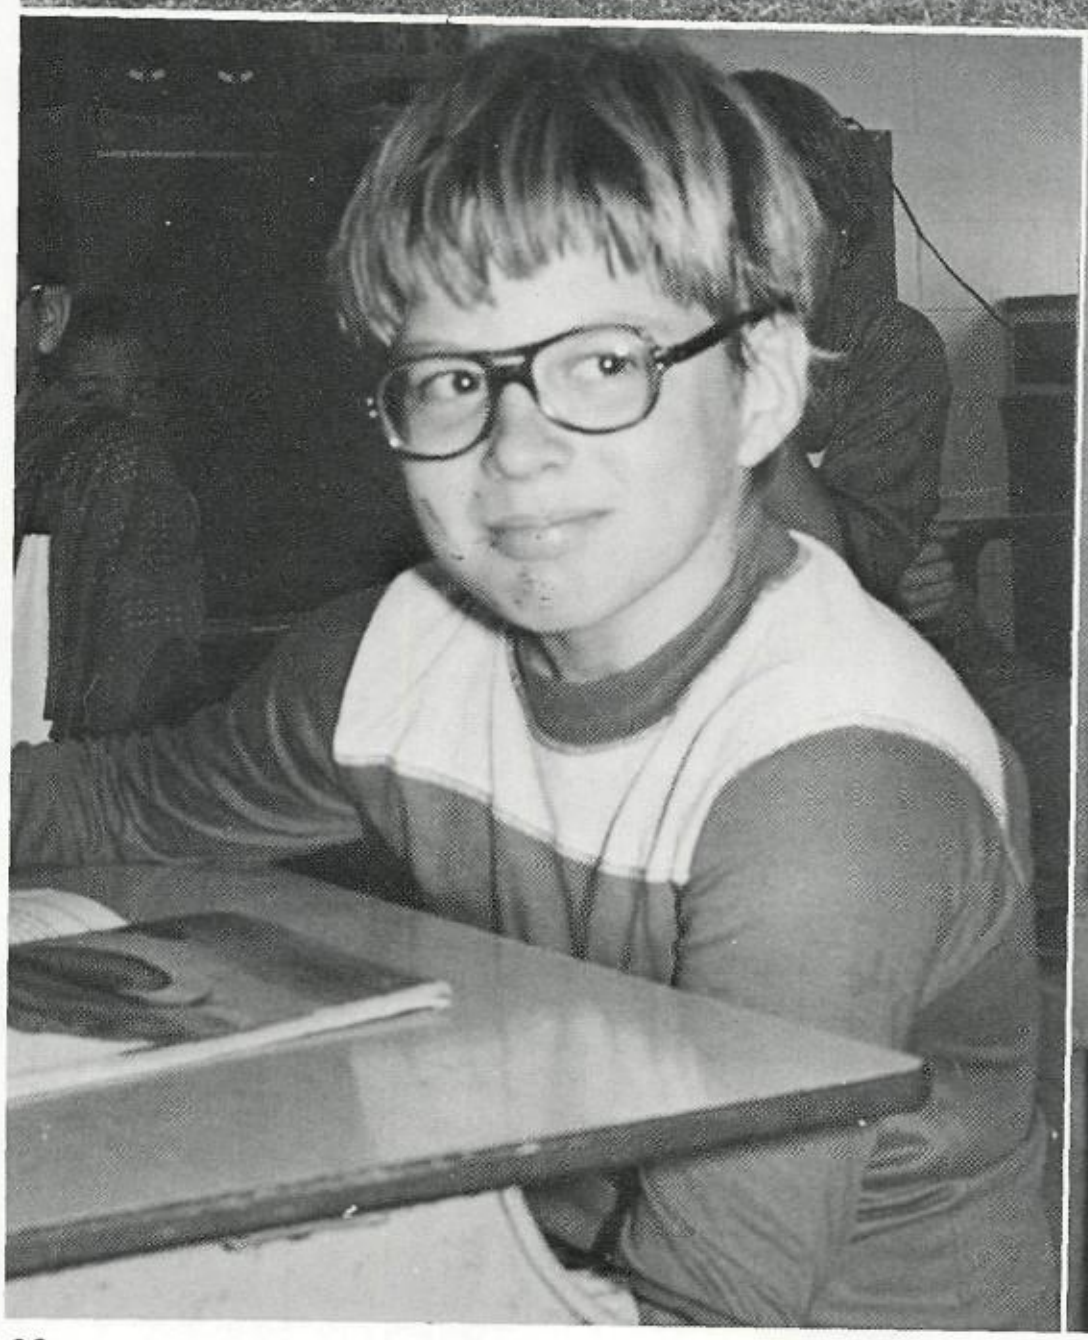
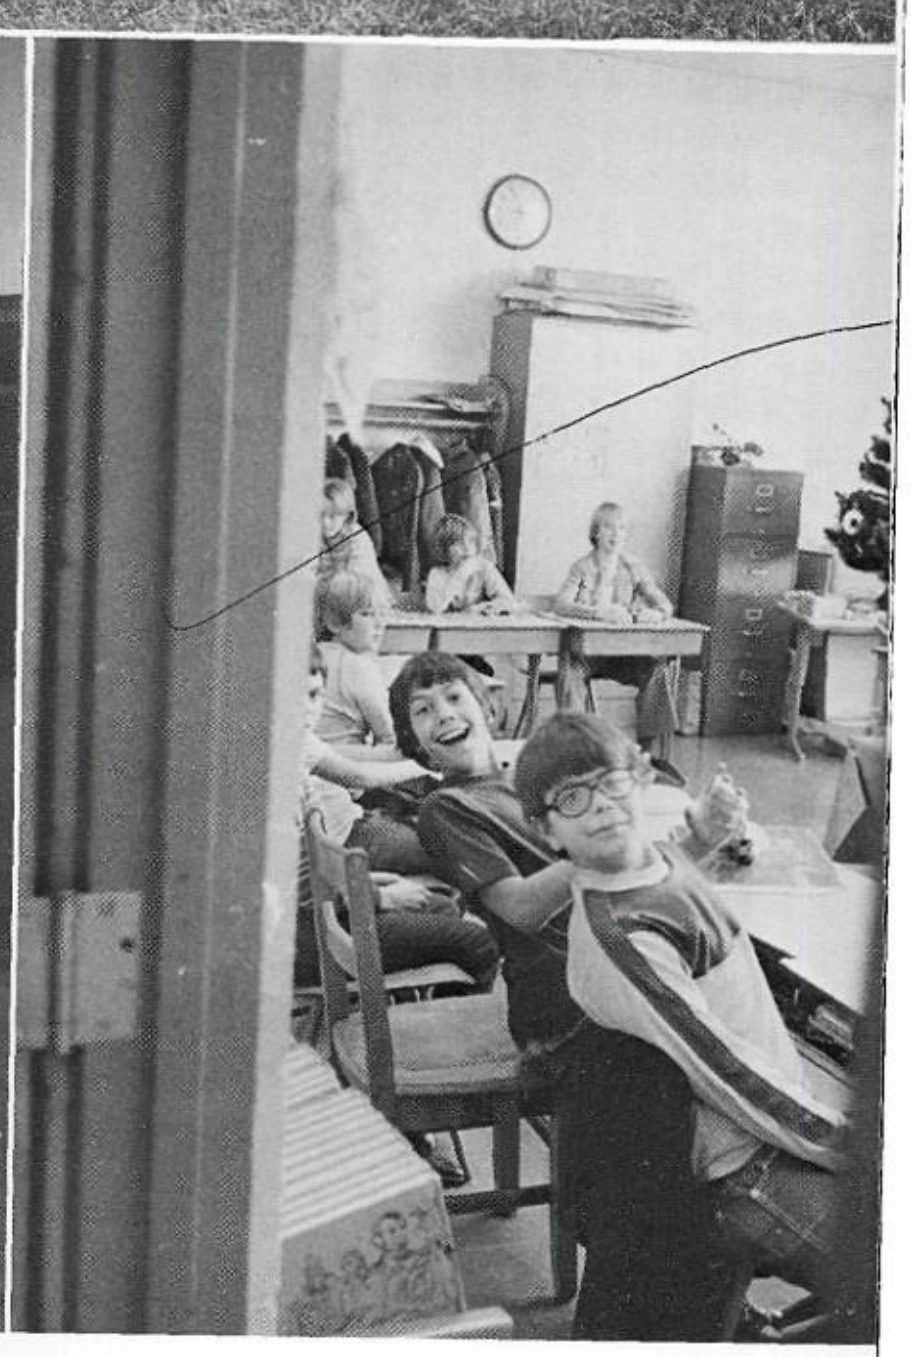
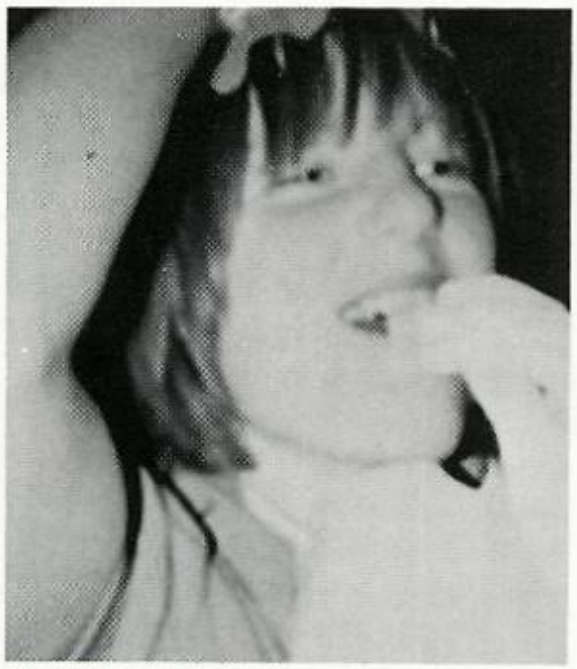
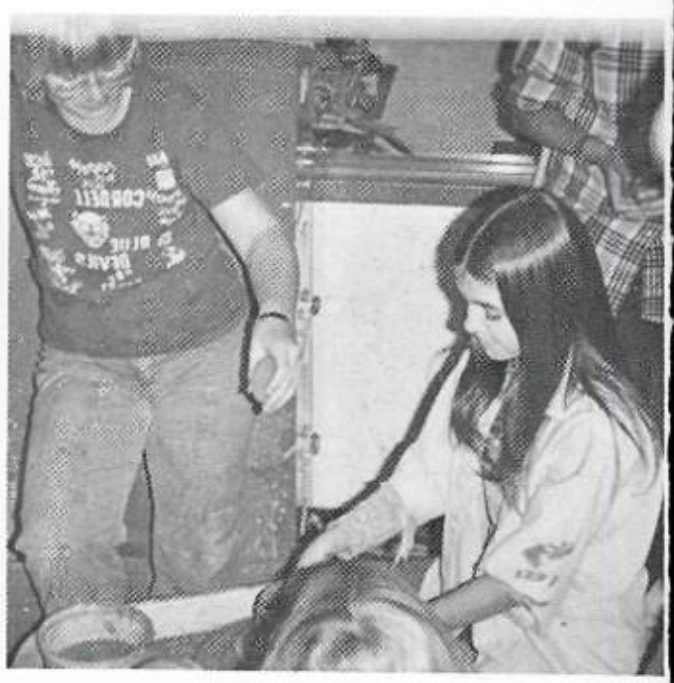
Typical Activities That





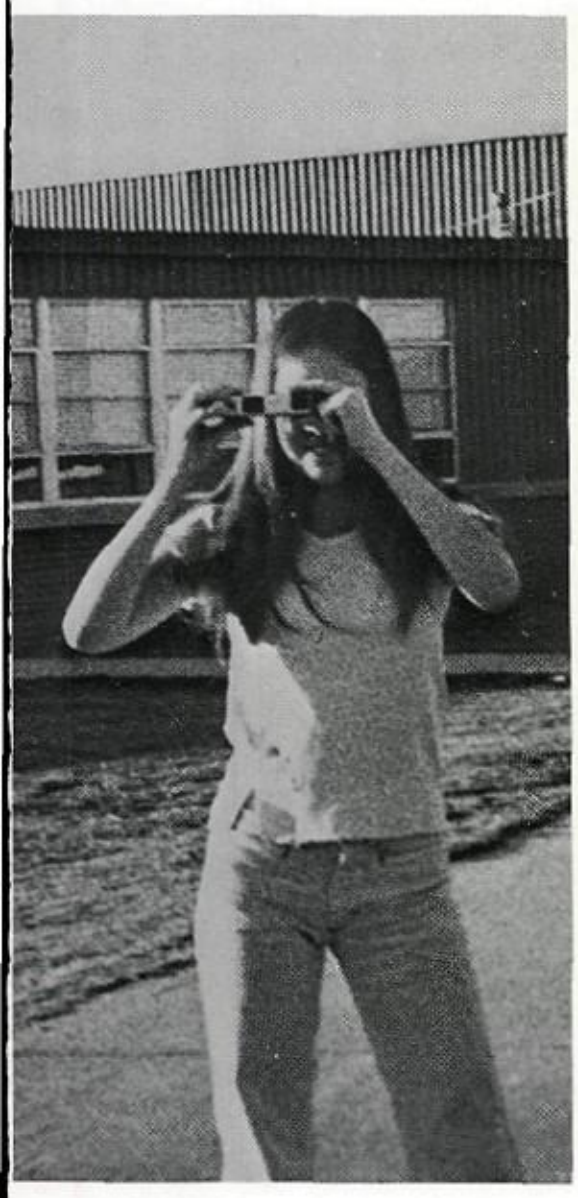
Fill Our Days

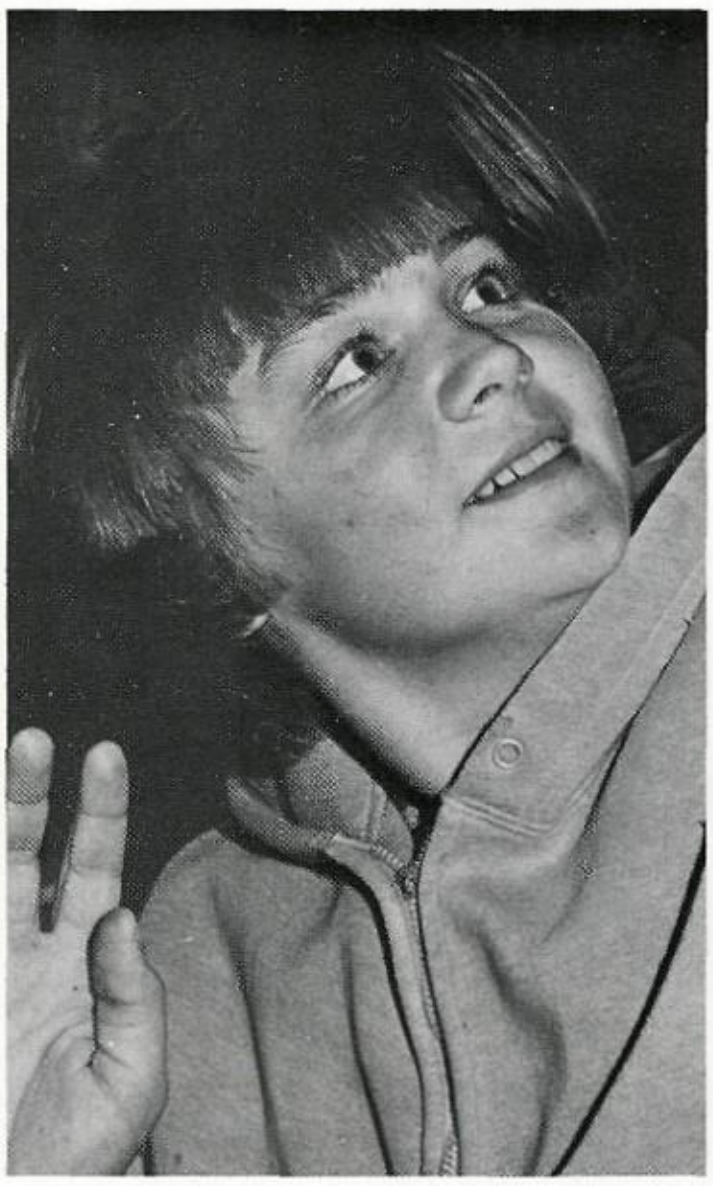




JUNIOR HIGH

Say hello to the Junior High. These classes are composed of many different students, each with their own thoughts and dreams. While the seventh graders are just getting into the swing of things, the eighth are preparing to be freshmen and the freshmen are getting ready for high school. Though this restlessness continues through Junior High the trend is always upward, moving ahead in search of higher goals.





As we are: working, playing, posing for the camera.

Homecoming: A Combination of

Homecoming at CHS is looked forward to by everyone. It's a week of work that passes fast but everyone enjoys it.

We started out the week b planning and making arrange ments to make floats for th parade on Friday afternoo

This year, we played Mountain View. All of the football players were fired up and ready to fight for a victory. An atmosphere of spirit filled the halls of the high school.

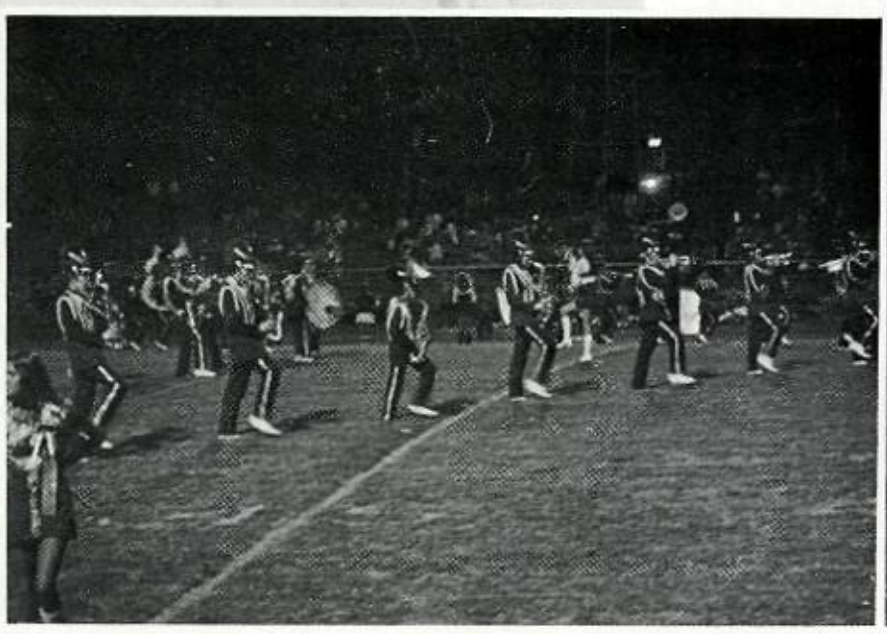
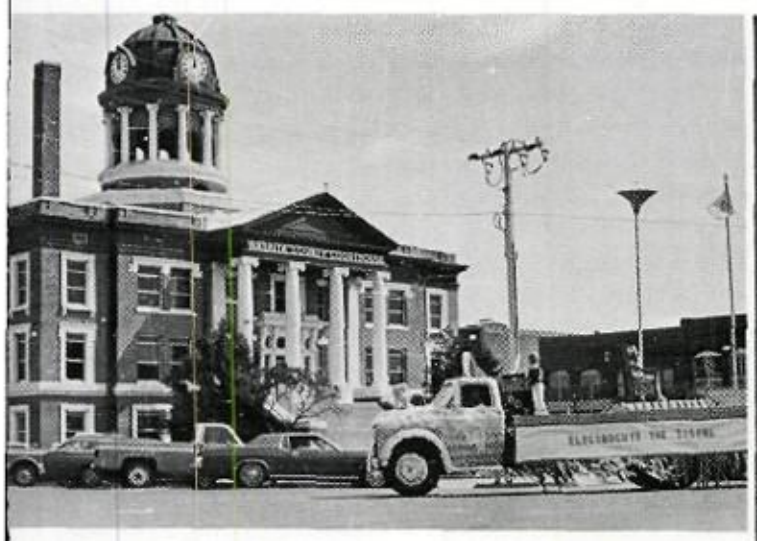
20-0!!!

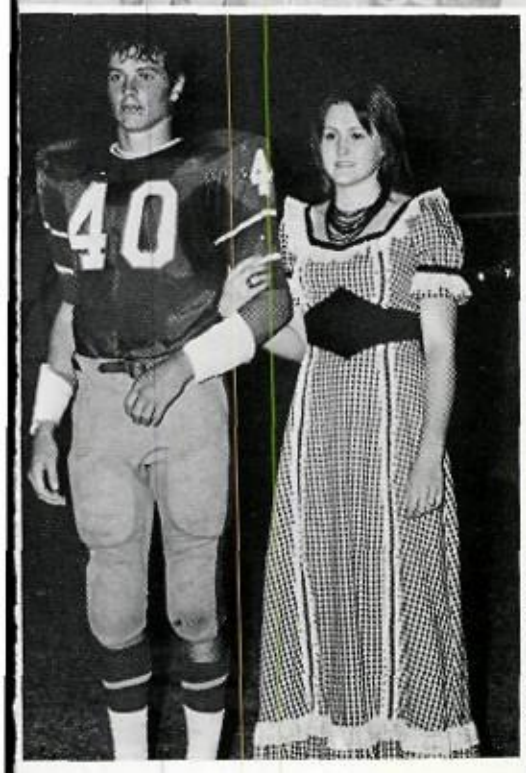


Competition, Hard Work, and Fun!



The queen candidates were Vickie Allen, Senior; Coletta Schmidt, Junior; and Marlane Maddox, Sophomore. The Senior candidate took the crown and reigned with glory.

There were many different designs and themes represented in the float competition. The Seniors won first with the theme "Electrocute the Tigers". Sophomore float came second and the Juniors third.



All in all, homecoming this year made history and none who participated will soon forget the fun we had together.

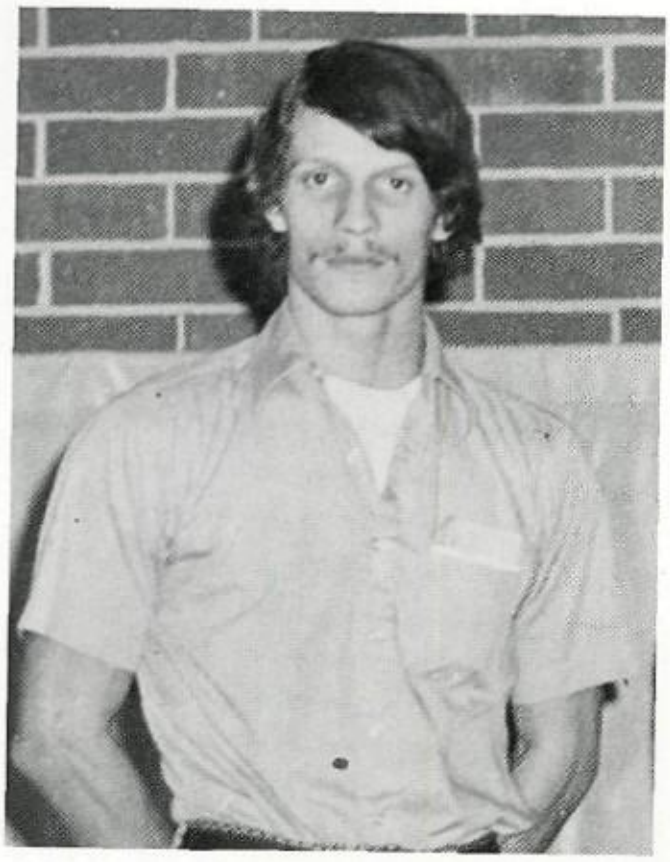
Hard Work and Pride Move Wrestlers Upward



Coach Bart Geis

This year, high school wrestlers, under the skilled guidance of a new coach, went by the motto: "Quality, not Quantity." The eight young men on the team worked hard to improve their wrestling skills. The team ended their season with a 5-5 record, then advanced to the Regional Tournament. All in all, the year was a learning experience for everyone who had a part in their success.

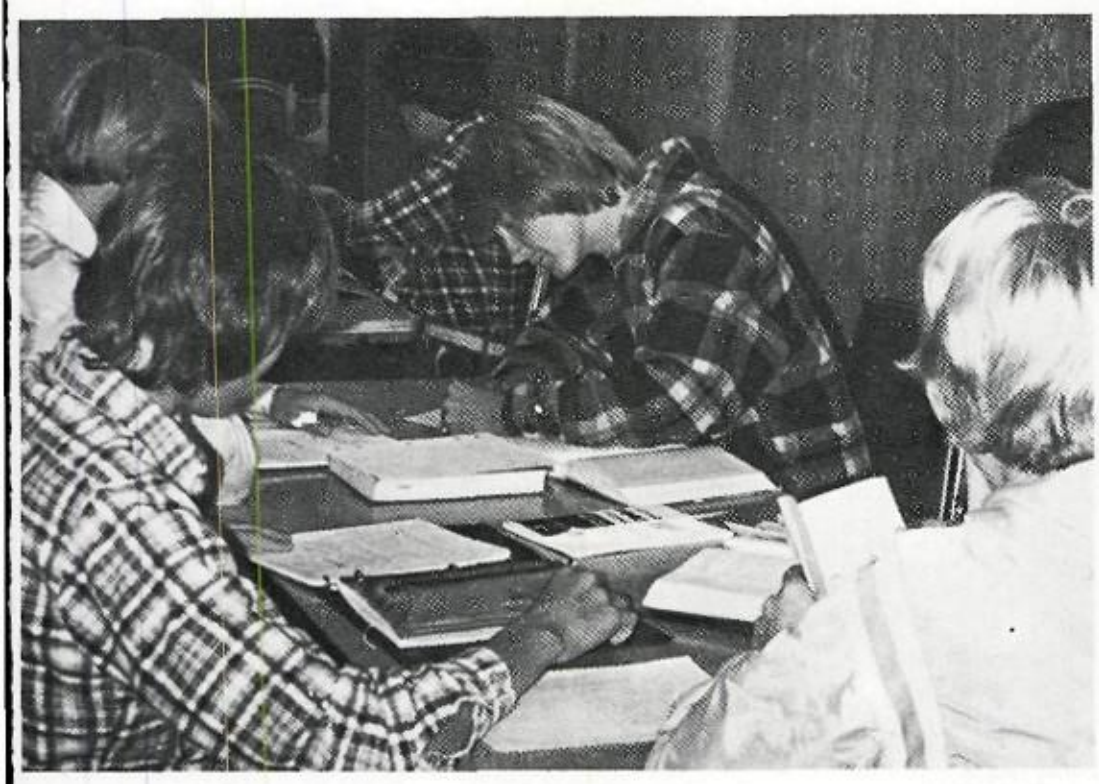
ACTIVITIES



Baking cakes to painting pictures . . . Singing to showing steers . . . Playing a horn to cheerleading. Students at Cordell High take part in a number of organizations and clubs that teach the students leadership, participation, and the art of compromise. A lot of hard work and fun have gone into making these clubs a necessary part of CHS life.

Letterettes and Lettermen

Lots of hard work is the payment for the honor of being a member of these clubs. These people have participated in the athletic programs, showing pride in their school, coach, teammates, and themselves.

"Talent is a gift, but it is more than that. It is a trust which no man has a right to ignore or, worse still, abuse. Each man, whatever the degree of talent bestowed upon him, has a moral responsibility, not only to himself but to society, to develop that gift to its utmost degree. They must have the courage and determination—the mental toughness—not only to succeed for themselves but, in the examples they set, to succeed for all men. Not only they but all of us are the better for it."

Vince Lombardi

Singers Provide Entertainment

Lola Windom, Kim Fleck, Kelly Wilmeth, Eddie Keener, Joyce Robertson, Melissa Haley, Cathy Waugh, Rusty Coon, Rhonda Schmidt, Cathy Keown

The high school chorus has been very active this year under the direction of Cathy Keown. They performed at the County Teacher's Meeting, as well as singing at local civic clubs. This year for the first time, the students tried out for All-Region Choir. Six students tried out and all six made it!! They were; Kelly, Eddie, Joyce, Cathy, Rusty, and Rhonda. Eddie Keener was chosen to the All-State Choir.

Blue Devil Band

Spirit is the key for the Cordell High School Band. This year, under the new direction of Ron Keown, the Band participated in football games, pep assemblies, Cordell homecoming parade, district marching contest, Southwestern homecoming . . . Although some lost faith, there were still those who never gave up, never gave in. Keep up the spirit!

The FFA Chapter made a devastating sweep on the fall show circuit, winning a total of thirty first place ribbons in three major shows. Members placed five lambs and three steers in the Premium Sales at the Tulsa State Fair, including the Grand Champion lamb, The Reserve Champion steer, and Champion school group. The chapter also held its annual Sausage Sale and a Slave Sale. Members participated in a Leadership Convention and the State FFA Convention.

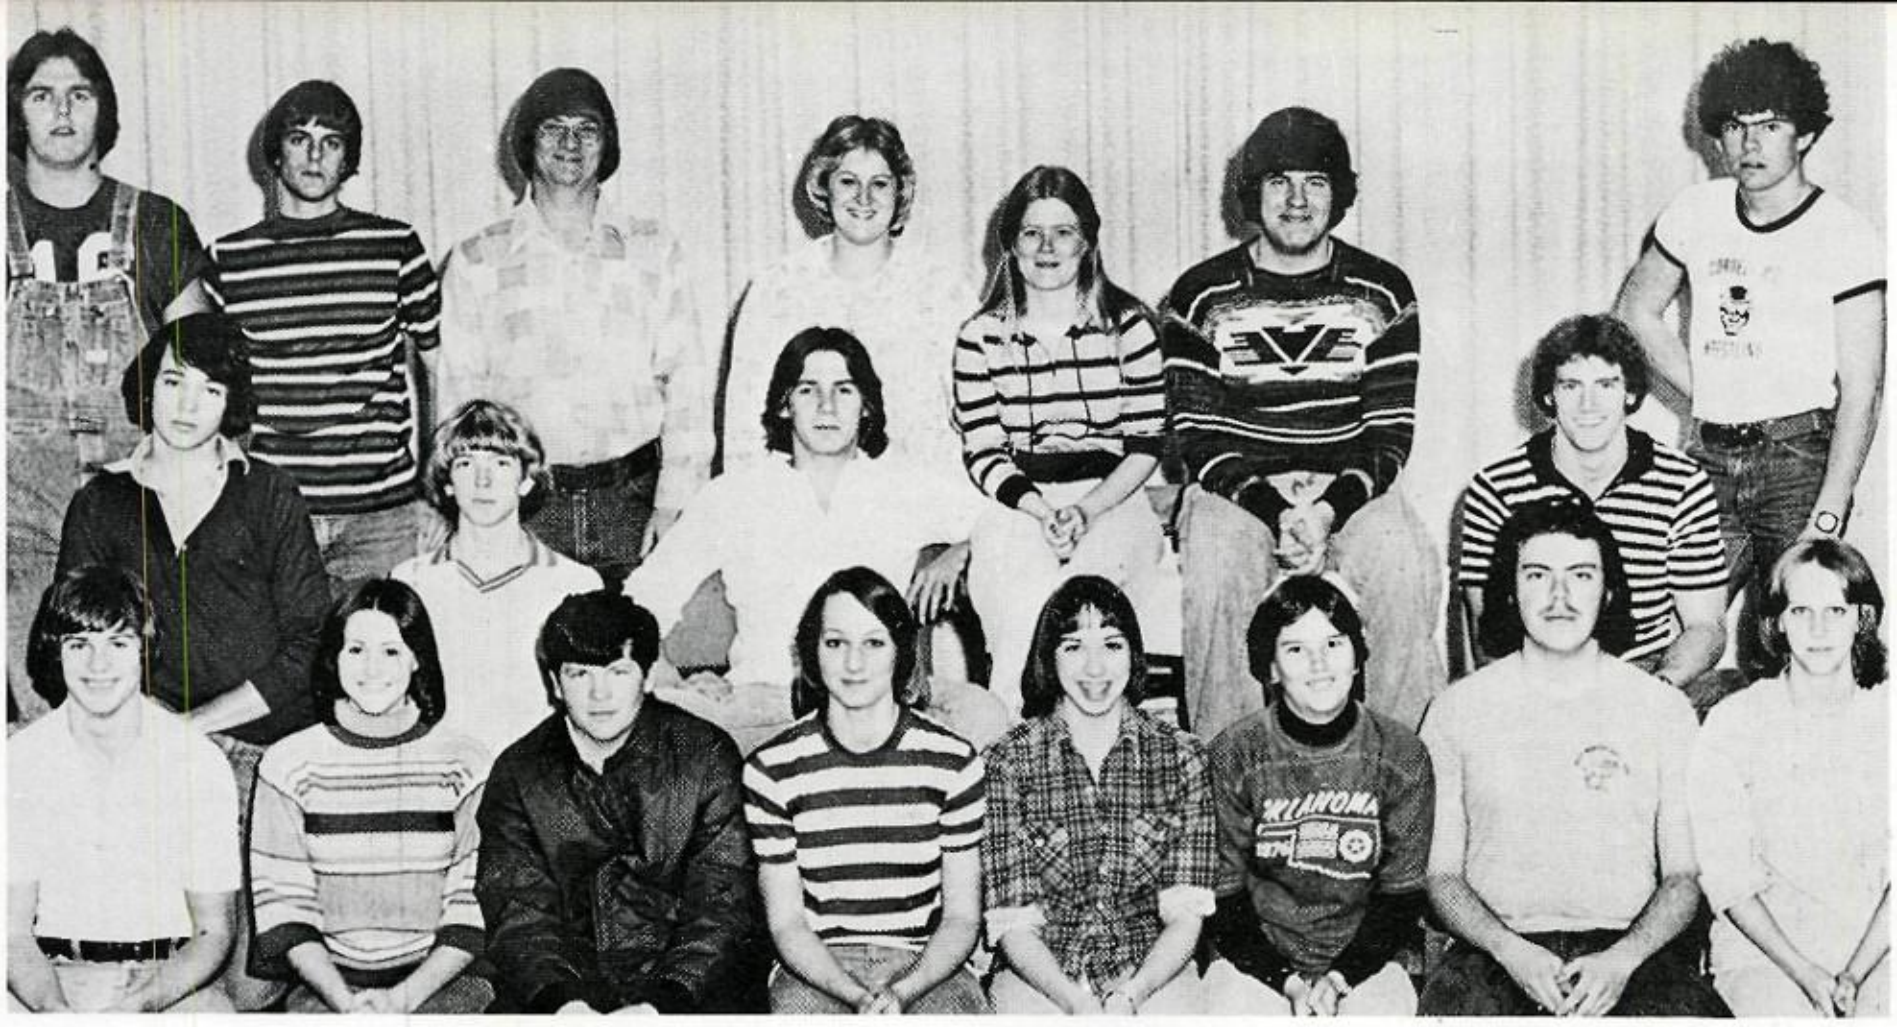
Cheerleaders at the homecoming parade!

Blue Devil Spirit is important at Cordell High and the cheerleaders help arouse it with a bonfire and car bash for the Weatherford game, decorating the halls, having pep assemblies, Devil of the week. Out cheerleaders try and with the support of the student body the spirit of Cordell High is GREAT!!!



All members of the speech class acted in the two performances of "You Can't Take It With You."

Sophomores

The step to high school life is always a big change, though the Sophomores this year seem to have adjusted quite well. At first high school appears cold and unfriendly, but getting into activities such as working on floats for the football homecoming, being part of the teams in sports, and actually finding out what it is to be a Blue Devil warmed things up a bit for the newcomers. The Sophomore year is one of fun blended with hard work, preparing them for the future, while making memories of the past.

Juniors

The Juniors are a mix, blend, and tumble of many personalities, laughing, crying, and working, getting things done together. Our activities range from float building, car washes, bake sales, to prom and banquet planning. As we step back to look again at the things we've accomplished, we suddenly realize we have only one more year and then it shall all be the past, with only bits and pieces for memory.

Seniors

When this year's Seniors entered high school three years ago, we looked forward to fun and work. We've had plenty of both!

We've become leaders in many areas. Working together well, we built two winning floats, elected our share of queens, and participated in outstanding athletic teams and a sweepstakes band. Livestock shows, speech tournaments, and art projects filled other busy hours.

It is said that the best place to start is at the beginning. So naturally, the best place to finish is at the end. But, in our case the end is only the beginning. It is the start of new ways of life for sixty-six young adults, each eager to make his mark on the world.

We, the Senior Class of 1977, started twelve long years ago preparing for the time in our lives when we would go our separate ways and discover what the world holds in store for us. These twelve years were full of study, patience, parties, frustrations, fun, hard work, and endurance. We have had many happy times and a few sad, but it was all worth while.

The past twelve years are all about hours and days and months . . . years to prepare . . . one last nervous minute of silent exuberance . . . moments to be remembered and moments that must be forgotten . . . it's all about proud parents, blue robes, and a diploma . . . the happy-sad beginning of a new way of life.
